AUSTRALIAN CATTLE DOGS

OLD TIMERS

The History of the Australian Cattle Dog 1900 to 1970

by
CHERYL ANN EDWARDS

Janet Spowart of Pets Publications is prepared to bring in a limited number of copies of Cheryl Edwards' "Old Timers". This is a must have according to many Australian breeders.

If we place an order for 10 copies Jane can bring them in for R570,00 (surface mail). Jane expects local postage to cost in the region of R40,00. This is an offer not to be missed!!

A book on the history of the Australian Cattle dog. Over 300 pages containing 500 photos (most of which have not been seen before) over 6 years in the making. This will be the encyclopedia of the Australian Cattle Dog, a reference book, a collectors' item, a book with a difference. Now you can see the dogs you have only heard about. Printed on high quality paper, fully bound and papered with a high-gloss dust jacket and gold foil stamped.

The Breed

The origin of the Australian Cattle Dog - written by Robert Kaleski (written 1935).

Articles on the breed

Written in 1938, 1939 and 1948

The Royal Agricultural Society of New South Wales - How and when it was founded, various subjects in the R.A.S.K.C.'s 1952 hand booklet, classes, old and new R.A.S. standards.

Robert Kaleski - Various articles and photographs.

Allan McNiven and the Dingo Blood - Tells of his introducing Dingo blood into his Australian Cattle Dogs and the dogs he sent to the U.S.

Exhibitor Profiles - Articles on forty six of the most prominent breeders and exhibitors of their time, many of whom were the first to export dogs outside Australia and three New Zealand breeders who were amongst the first to import these early dogs. Features an abundance of photos.

Points of interest and Collection of Certificates - Contains over 500 photos.
